

Southdown Primary School

Contributed by Louie V
Tuesday, 05 January 2010

SHE left me all alone today while SHE went to read to the students of Southdown Primary School in Huntington, NY. I so wish I was allowed to go in schools. I enjoy reading and I always clean up my mess, so I would make a good student. SHE said the children were so wonderful and everyone knew how to raise their hands! So fantastic! All this typing is making me sleepy.....off for a quick nap.